Scripture Alone

All scripture is given by inspiration of God, and is profitable for doctrine
for reproof, for correction, for instruction in righteousness: That the man of God may be perfect, thoroughly furnished unto all good works.

2 Timothy 3:16-17

Scripture Alone

For prophecy never came by the will of man, but holy men of God spoke as they were moved by the Holy Spirit.

2 Peter 1:21

A person's silhouette is seen from behind, looking out over a landscape of mountains and a sunset. The sun is low on the horizon, casting a warm orange glow across the sky and the silhouetted mountains. The person is standing on a hill, and their arms are slightly outstretched.

Porque la profecía no ha tenido su origen en la voluntad humana, sino que los profetas hablaron de parte de Dios, impulsados por el Espíritu Santo.

2 Pedro 1:21

"The Bible is written by inspired men, but it is not God's mode of thought and expression. It is that of humanity.

God, as a writer, is not represented.

Men will often say such an expression is not like God. But God has not put Himself in words, in logic, in rhetoric, on trial in the Bible. The writers of the Bible were God's penmen, not His pen."

Selected Messages 1:19-21

"It is not the words of the Bible that are inspired, but the men that were inspired."

Inspiration acts not on the man's words or his expressions, but on the man himself, who, under the influence of the Holy Ghost, is imbued with thoughts. But the words receive the impress of the individual mind. The divine mind is diffused. The divine mind and will is combined with the human mind and will; thus the utterances of the man are the Word of God."

Testimonies for the Church 4:17, 18.

"I was led to conclude and most firmly believe that every word that you ever spoke (Ellen White) in public or private, that every letter you wrote under any and all circumstances, was as inspired as the ten commandments.

I held that view with absolute tenacity against innumerable objections raised to it by many who were occupying prominent positions in the [Adventist] cause," wrote Dr. David Paulson to Ellen White on April 19, 1906.

Mrs. White replied to Paulson on June 14, 1906.

"My brother," she penned, "you have studied my writings diligently, and you have never found that I have made any such claims [to verbal inspiration], neither will you find that the pioneers in our cause ever made such claims".

I recommend to you, dear reader, the word of God as the rule of your faith and practice. By that Word we are to be judged. God has, in that Word, promised to give visions in the 'last days;' not for a new rule of faith, but for the comfort of His people, and to correct those who err from Bible truth. (Early Writings p. 78).

I exalt the precious Word before you today. Do not repeat what I have said, saying, 'Sister White said this,' and 'Sister White said that.' Find out what the Lord God of Israel says, and then do what He commands.

1. Either God inspired the Bible
 2. Or good men and angels invented it,
 3. Or bad men and angels invented it.

En esto consiste el amor:
no en que nosotros hayamos amado a Dios, sino en que él nos amó y envió a su Hijo para que fuera ofrecido como sacrificio por el perdón de nuestros pecados.
